PERSONAL DETAILS:

DOB : 12th July 1992

LANGUAGES KNOWN : English, Kannada, Hindi

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

I firmly believe that excellence in breast cancer care is built on a foundation of collaborative teamwork and unwavering commitment to patient-centered outcomes. As a Breast Oncosurgeon, my aim is to work closely with a multidisciplinary team - including medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, radiologists, pathologists, plastic surgeons, psycho-oncologists, genomics experts, nurses and patient navigators to ensure every patient receives holistic, evidence-based and personalized care. Open communication, mutual respect and shared decision-making are central to my practice.

My highest priority is patient satisfaction, not only in terms of clinical outcomes, but also emotional well-being, aesthetic results and overall treatment experience. I strive to create a compassionate environment where patients feel heard, supported and empowered at every stage of their journey. By aligning clinical expertise with empathy and teamwork, I aim to deliver care that is not just curative, but also transformative.
