

LEPROSY DAY- 2026

We, the dept.of DVL and dept of CM under the efficient guidance of our HODs Prof.Dr.S Karthikraja and prof.Dr. Prabhakaran made this initiative to conduct an awareness program to the public on the World Leprosy Day, 4th February 2026

An approximately 200 public participated in this event program, where an awareness regarding the occurrence of Leprosy, type of Vitiligo, symptoms of leprosy, predisposing factors, high risk individuals, myths surrounding it, taboo and social stigma attached to it, when to seek medical advice, various treatment options was done in Tamil language.

We are extremely Thankful for our Chairman Prof Dr.M.Mala mam, Secretary Mr.G.Manikandan sir, Dean Dr. Ravichandran, MS Dr. Habeeb Mohammed who were very supportive to this wonderful event and helped for the smooth conduct of the same.

Dr.ChinthaamaniKPR delivered welcome address.

Dr. Karthikraja, HOD addressed the gathering.

Dr. Ravichandran & Dr. Habeeb Muhammed gave a brief about the leprosy and its impact on the society

Dr. Sushmitha-3rd year PG gave a presentation on the leprosy awareness in Tamil language to the public.

Department of community medicine gave a small skit that made an awareness to the public.

Community awareness speech done by Dr. Radhibala, Senior resident Community medicine

Vote of thanks given by Dr. Srikrishnapriya to conclude the event.

Dr. Saranya-2nd year PG hosted the event.

Dr. Challa Tejaswi -3rd year PG and Dr.Priyavarshini-2nd year PG made the necessary arrangements for the grand success of this event.

