	or if the grievance is about the mentor, the aggrieved student can escalate the same to the concerned Head of the Department. Grievance can be submitted in writing by the aggrieved student. This step may be skipped, if the grievance involves the Head of the Department. b. The Head of the Department shall investigate & try to resolve the issue. Response sheet about the incident shall be submitted within 10 days. c. If the applicant is not satisfied, the student shall submit the grievance sheet to the Grievance Redressal Committee within 15 calendar days of the incident. d. The Grievance Redressal Committee shall independently investigate, conduct meeting / hearing in the presence of applicant and respond in writing to the grievance within 20 calendar days of the written submission of the grievance e. If the applicant is still not satisfied with the decision, he/she may submit the grievance in writing to the Head of the institution, describing the reasons for dissatisfaction. f. If the grievance involves a member of the Grievance Redressal Committee, the student may submit the grievance directly to the office of Head of the institution. g. All parties shall be given a fair hearing at all levels and committees. The rule of natural justice must be upheld, and the complainant must receive a fair hearing and assistance to those in need must be provided at all levels. h. When making a decision on a complaint at any level, the pertinent provisions of the Act or Regulations of the UGC must be considered, and no decision may be made, which conflicts with them.
	What does not constitute as grievance? Grievance Redressal procedure is not applicable to personal conflicts, results of assessments, official disciplinary actions and reprimands.
