Detailed report of the program

Objective of the Celebration

The event aimed to recognize the invaluable contributions of doctors in serving humanity, especially during challenging times, and to express gratitude for their commitment to improving public health.

Event Highlights

The program began with a ceremonial lamp lighting by the chief guest. This was followed by a welcome address delivered by Dr.J.Muthukumaran, Dean who highlighted the importance of observing Doctors' Day and the impact of the medical community on society.

The keynote address was delivered by Dr.Jayakumar.B, who spoke on the theme of the year. The speech emphasized the evolving role of doctors and the need for continuous innovation in medical science to meet global healthcare challenges.

Cultural Performances and Interactive Sessions

The celebration included cultural performances by the college band and pre-final year students, adding a lively and joyous touch to the event. Additionally, interactive sessions and a panel discussion provided an engaging platform for knowledge-sharing and discussions.

Vote of Thanks and Closing

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Nandhini, who expressed gratitude to the organizing team, sponsors, and all participants for making the event a success. Refreshments were served, and attendees had the opportunity to network and share experiences.

Thanks to the management Prof.Dr. Mala, the esteemed chairperson, and Mr. Manikandan, the Secretary, whose support and guidance played a pivotal role in this great achievement.

Clinical Connect 2024: Endocrine Physiology was organized by the Department of Physiology, Tagore Medical College and Hospital on 29th April 2024. This academic event was conducted to foster Early Clinical Exposure by connecting Basic Medical Sciences with clinical applications.

The event started in Lecture Hall 1 with a welcome address by Dr. Navin Rajaratnam, Professor and Head, Department of Physiology. A total of 12 events were conducted, including 6 on-day events and 6 pre-events. Digital art, Mnemonics making and Animation were pre-events conducted online while Debate, Quiz and Poetry were pre-events held on-stage. The 6 on-day events were Clinical case presentation, Oral presentation, Star scientist, Poster making, Tableaux and Rangoli.

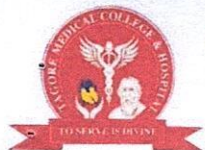

Poetry was conducted on 25th April 2024 in the Demo room 2 of the Department of Physiology, and was coordinated by the student Jose Thomas. There were 15 participants, who assembled in the demo hall to write poems on topics of their own choosing from Endocrine Physiology, in both English and Tamil. The event was judged by Dr. K Deepika, Assistant Professor and Ms. Anin Jenolin, Tutor from the Department of Physiology.

Digital art had 7 participants in 3 teams and was judged by Dr. Rewanth Naik, Tutor, from the Department of Physiology. The event was Coordinated by the student V. Aadityakrishna. The participants sent their artworks online, on a prior date. All the art works were showcased on the day of the event. Mnemonics making had 20 participants and these were also sent online, the day prior. They were showcased on the day of the event. This event was coordinated by the student V. Aadityakrishna and judged by Dr. A Sasikumar, Associate Professor, Department of Physiology. Animation had 4 participants and the projects were submitted online the day before. All the projects were also displayed on the day of the event. This event was coordinated by the student Sidharthan R K and judged by Ms. Anin Jenolin, Tutor, Department of Physiology.

The Endocrine Quiz had 14 teams, with 4 participants each. The quiz was held in 6 rounds, with a variety of questions asked in various creative ways. The event was coordinated by the students Rajat Kevin and Geet Nandan, and organized by Ms. Anin Jenolin from the Department of Physiology

The Debate was held in two rounds, coordinated by the student S. Khavya, with the prelims being held on 25th April 2024, followed by the finals on 27th April 2024. After a heated debate on the topics two teams moved on to the finals. The final debate, on the topic "Hypothyroidism vs Hyperthyroidism: Which poses a greater health challenge?" concluded with the winners being decided by the panel of judges comprising of Dr. A Sasikumar, Associate professor and Dr. K Deepika, Assistant Professor from the Department of Physiology.

On the day of the event, 29th April 2024, six events were held. The first event was Poster presentation, coordinated by the student Harshitha Vaithiyam Vishnuvardhan, with 15 teams and 3 participants per team. Various creative posters were made on topics such as Hormonal mechanisms and Endocrine diseases. The winners were selected by a panel of judges comprising of Dr. D.H Gopalan, Vice principal and Dr. M Vani, Professor from the Department of Anatomy, and Dr. A Sasikumar, Associate Professor from the Department of Physiology, and Dr. B S Sangeetha, Professor from the Department of Pathology. Along with Poster presentation 3 other events were held simultaneously namely Oral presentation, Clinical case presentation and Star Scientist.

Oral presentation was conducted in 2 halls simultaneously and had 19 participants in total, coordinated by the student Priyank Sree. Topics were allotted to the participants who prepared 6-minute-long presentations. These Presentations were judged on the basis of layout, explanation and timing. The event was judged by Dr. B Bhuvaneswari, Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacology and Dr. Meenakshi, Professor, Department of Biochemistry.

Clinical Case Discussion was conducted in 3 halls simultaneously and had 24 participants, who discussed the key signs and symptoms, diagnostic tests, treatment and overview about a disease which had been assigned to them priorly. The event was coordinated by the student S Sruthika and the participants were judged on the basis of coverage of topic, organization of ideas, layout, design and discussion. The Event was judged by Dr. K Deepika, Assistant Professor, Department of Physiology, Dr. Abirami, Senior Resident, Department of Biochemistry and Dr. V Sujatha, Radiation Oncologist, Tagore Medical College and Hospital.

Star Scientist was held in 2 halls simultaneously and had 11 participants, with each participant delivering a speech on the life of scientists who played an important role in the discovery of various aspects of Endocrine Physiology. The event was coordinated by the student Janani M and judged by Dr. Cecileya Jasmine, Tutor and Dr. T Priscilla, Assistant Professor, from the Department of Biochemistry.

The Rangoli event was held in own book reading hall, with 14 teams, each of whom brought out their creativity in the form of various designs under the topic Endocrine Physiology. The event was coordinated by the student Sivakami A and judged by Dr. K Punlagai, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmacology and Dr. R Sumithasree, Assistant Professor from the Department of Pathology. The final event Tableaux was coordinated by the student Satyageetha. There were 3 teams who gave performances on Rickets, Grave's Disease and Cushing's syndrome. This event was judged by Dr. Navin Rajaratnam, Professor and Head, Department of Physiology.

After all the competitions were concluded, the Prize Distribution ceremony began in lecture hall 1, compered by Jeyavardhini V, Harshitha Sreenivasan and Kamakshi Murali. The ceremony commenced with Dr. Navin Rajaratnam, Professor and Head, Department of Physiology, who welcomed the gathering with his inspiring words Dr. D.H. Detailed report of the program

On September 22 , 2023, AASAAN was joyfully celebrated by Tagore Medical College & Hospital. The event took place in the 3 rd-floor auditorium and was organized under the guidance of Prof. Dr. M. Mala. Attendees included faculty members from various departments, CRRIs (Compulsory Rotatory Residential Internship), and medical students.

The cultural program featured captivating dance performances and melodious musical acts, all skillfully presented by the talented final year students. The Student Council committee played a vital role in organizing this delightful event. In addition, the faculty members enthusiastically participated in a ramp walk, adding a touch of elegance to the occasion.

The feedback received from the students was overwhelmingly positive and highly supportive, reflecting their enjoyment and appreciation of the program.

Detailed report of the program

The annual cultural extravaganza, Azura 2023, held at Tagore Medical College and Hospital, proved to be a resounding success, showcasing the immense talent and creativity of the students. The event, organized by Zenolantz and students under the efficient supervision of the college management, unfolded on the 18th and 19th of August 2023.

The cultural fiesta was graced by the honorable presence of Dr. Mala, the esteemed chairperson, and Mr. Manikandan, the Secretary, whose support and guidance played a pivotal role in the seamless execution of the event. Adding prestige to the occasion was the presence of Mr. Arjun Das, a renowned Tamil film celebrity, who attended as the guest of honor. Their collective presence elevated the cultural celebration to new heights.

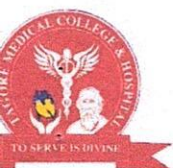

Azura 2023 presented a diverse array of activities that captivated the audience's attention. From soulful singing to mesmerizing dance performances and captivating instrumental displays, the event truly had something for everyone. The competitive events included adzap, adaptunes, movie spoof, cinephilia, fashion parade, band performances, rangoli, short film competition, dance face-off, group dance, solo singing, solo instrument, and channel surfing, providing a platform for participants to showcase their unique talents.

Approximately 500 students participated with great enthusiasm, putting forth their best performances. The atmosphere was charged with energy and excitement as students poured their hearts into their respective acts. The presence of distinguished guests and the active involvement of the audience created a memorable and remarkable ambiance, making Azura 2023 a standout event in the college calendar.

The competitive spirit was at its peak, and after a series of captivating performances, the overall winner for Azura 2023 was declared - Revellionz from the 2019 batch. Their outstanding performances across various events showcased not only their talent but also their dedication and commitment to excellence.

Azura 2023 was not just an event; it was a celebration of creativity, talent, and unity. The successful organization of this cultural extravaganza reflects the collaborative efforts of the students, faculty, and management. As the curtains closed on Azura 2023, it left behind memories of a vibrant and pulsating cultural celebration that will be cherished for years to come.
